

FOR THE LOVE OF CREATION

I admitted that I was in love with Creation. I must also admit that out of all the things that creation enables—poetry is my favorite. Poetry is the best reflection of my love story with creativity. It truly defines who I am. Therefore, for my Wild Card I decided to include a piece of poetry. The film is humorous, for a comic relief. However, the voice-over is the presentation of my poem entitled “Creation.” The poem explains my basic process of writing a poem. Click the following link to enjoy:
